

Identity and relationships

Early separation and subsequent adoption experience can lead to identity and relationship issues for adopted adults. This group is for adopted adults who struggle with relationships, often feeling unhappy, rejected, confused or dissatisfied.

Designed as a support group, participants will be given the opportunity to:

- Share their experiences
- Understand their past and how it affects the present
- Explore new and more positive ways to move forward

Numbers will be limited so early application is advised.

Facilitators: Beverley Morris and Rita Cleary

- The group will run in February 2011 and held over five evenings
- Time to be confirmed
- North London
